

THE MAGICIANS TABLE

MEET THE MAGICIANS

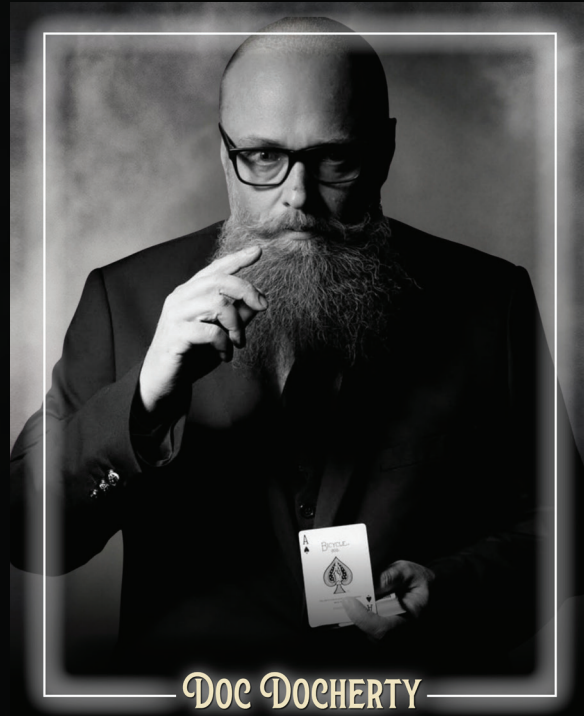

MICHAEL BLOEMEKE

Michael Bloemeke is a professional magician from Raleigh, North Carolina, specializing in both close-up and stage magic. With over a decade of experience, he blends internationally recognized comedy and skill to create engaging, unforgettable performances. His work has earned honors from the International Brotherhood of Magicians, a feature on The CW's Masters of Illusion, and the exclusive "Masters of Magic" degree from the 4F Convention. In 2025 he represented the United States at the FISM World Championship in Turin, where he won the Most Original Act award.

CHASTAIN CRISWELL

From the streets to the spotlight, Criswell: Traveling Magician brings timeless showmanship and close-up wonder to every seat at the table. With over 30 years of performing coast to coast, Criswell has entertained audiences everywhere from corporate events to festival stages. A published creator in the magic industry and veteran street performer, Criswell brings vintage showmanship, quick wit, and world-class sleight-of-hand to the table—offering a close-up experience that's as funny as it is impossible.

DOC DOCHERTY

Doc Docherty is a magician local to Charlotte that has spent his life studying and practicing the art of magic, performing for audiences across the country. A regular featured performer at the Magic Castle, he is known for his laid-back style and warm personality that make spectators feel like they've known him for years. His work reflects a deep appreciation for the sense of wonder at the heart of magic.

GARY GOODMAN

For over 40 years, Gary Goodman has amazed audiences around the world with his extraordinary blend of sleight-of-hand magic, comedy stage magic, and mentalism. His career highlights include performing for eight seasons during Miami Heat halftime shows, winning a coveted role in Adam Sandler's "Jack and Jill" (selected from 75 magicians), and performing for the Queen of England's Beefeaters guards at the Tower of London.

ALYX HILSHEY

Alyx Hilshey is a world-class sleight-of-hand artist whose work has performed at The Magic Castle and has been featured on Penn & Teller: Fool Us. Known for her razor-sharp chops and sly sense of humor, she delivers performances that are as surprising as they are skillful, captivating audiences everywhere she performs.

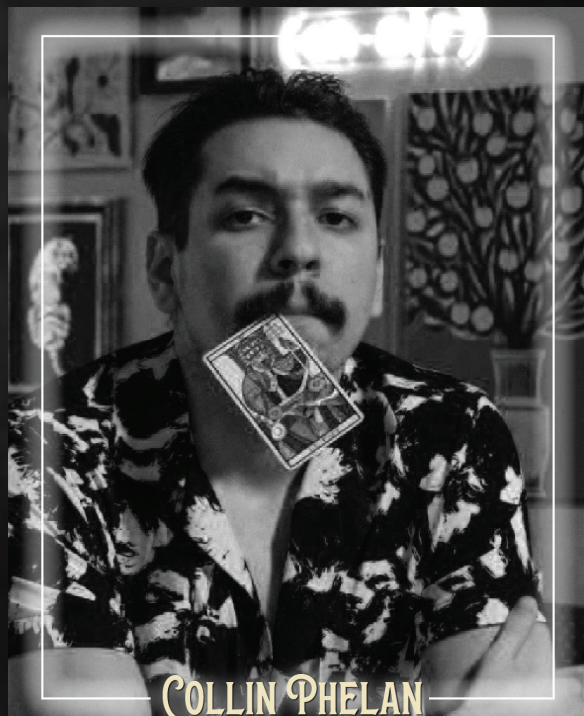

MATTHEW KENYON

Matthew Kenyon began his magic journey in South Korea and now lives and performs professionally in Charlotte while entertaining everywhere in between. He brings a fun, engaging aura to every performance, focusing on sleight of hand, mysterious mental abilities, and an unstoppable upbeat energy.

KEVIN NOBLE

Kevin Noble believes magic is best shared, not simply shown, and his performances reflect a lifelong love for the art. He creates moments of connection and astonishment for corporate clients including RE/MAX, the Autism Strong Foundation, and the Omni Grove Park Inn. Warm and inviting in style, Kevin encourages audiences to rediscover their sense of wonder.

COLLIN PHELAN

Collin Phelan began his journey into the mysterious through childhood magic and a love for reading Harry Potter, eventually developing a practice centered on helping others discover the hidden poetry within themselves. For eight years, he has refined his skills in conversational hypnosis, Tarot reading, and Numerology, drawing inspiration from ancient Greek soothsayers and artists. With an academic background in behavioral psychology, philosophy, and literature, Collin's performances invite believers and skeptics alike to experience curiosity, fascination and amazement in a way that empowers their lives.

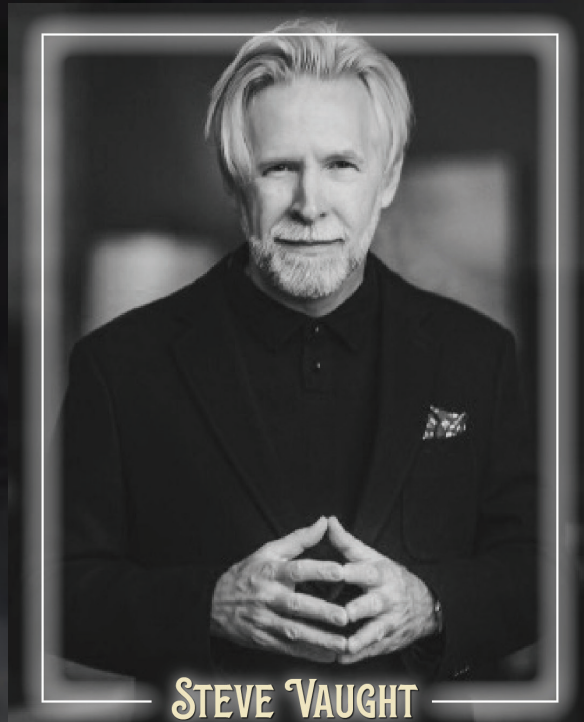

KEVIN REYLEK

Kevin Reylek is a North Carolina native who has been performing magic since the age of eight. He appears frequently at private and corporate events nationwide, with clients including the Carolina Hurricanes, the Carolina Panthers, and numerous well-known celebrities. With a screenwriting degree from the North Carolina School of the Arts, Kevin brings a strong sense of narrative and connection to his conversational performance style.

PAIGE THOMPSON

Paige Thompson travels the world sharing her distinctive brand of magic and is currently a resident company member of the Chicago Magic Lounge. She has appeared at top venues including the Magic Castle in Hollywood, House of Cards in Nashville, Liberty Magic in Pittsburgh, and stages in Branson, Missouri. In 2025 she debuted her one-person show at Steppenwolf Theatre and now headlines premier cruise lines around the globe. Her television appearances include Masters of Illusion, FOX's Showtime at the Apollo, and Penn & Teller: Fool Us.

STEVE VAUGHT

Steve Vaught has performed at the renowned Chicago Magic Lounge and spent over a decade refining his craft through weekly close-up shows in Indiana restaurants. Blending psychology, storytelling, and sleight of hand, he's become a sought-after addition to special events for his ability to create unforgettable, intimate moments of wonder.

JAKE ZIMMER

For more than two decades, Jake Zimmer has brought laughter, amazement, and a touch of mystery to audiences everywhere. His modern take on classic magic, paired with an interactive performance style, ensures each show feels personal and unforgettable. Jake's approach blends humor, skill, and audience connection to create experiences that are both intimate and astonishing.

LIZZIE BOURNE

JEFF CORN

EVAN DRIGGS